

Lent 2019 Sharing our Riches across Kew

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
17.00 Stations of the Cross St Anne's	8pm Pub Theology – informal gathering at the Kew Gardens Hotel to discuss contemporary theological issues	11am Bible Study – in depth group study of the forthcoming Sunday's readings St Luke's	11.00 – Bible Study for Lent St Anne's	8pm Compline a quiet, reflective service of prayer and Scripture, with meditation and silent prayer The Barn	Exposition of The Blessed Sacrament – after 9.30am Mass, until 10.45am St Winefride's
		Bible Study 7.30pm (after 7pm Mass) St Winefride's	2.30pm Tea & Theology – informal conversations around theological topics of the day, with tea and cake The Barn		Stations of The Cross 7pm St Winefride's

Also:

FASTING FOR LENT? Tired of giving up alcohol or chocolate? Then for a change why not try a Carbon Fast? Each day you will be guided to take some small action that will reduce your carbon footprint and help you to reflect on the entrusted gift of God's creation and of our need to care for the planet. For more information: <https://www.stlukeskew.org/carbon-fast-lent-2019>

St John's Passion Concert on Friday 12th March – details and tickets available on line at www.saintanne-kew.org.uk

Good Friday – Walk of Witness Starting at St Anne's and proceeding via St Winefride's to Kew Gardens station with distribution of Hot Cross buns.